Chris Patt is a shareholder who practices out of the firm's St. Louis office. He concentrates his practice on representing insurance carriers, employers, and third party administrators in the defense of workers' compensation claims throughout Missouri and Illinois. He actively works with employers and insurance companies to defend their interests by constantly communicating with them to be fully aware of their litigation goals.

Conducting trials before the Illinois and Missouri Divisions of Workers' Compensation and arguing cases before the Missouri Labor and Industrial Relations Commission, the Missouri Court of Appeals Eastern District, and the Illinois Workers' Compensation Commission, Chris obtains successful defense decisions for his clients.

Chris often presents on workers' compensation issues. He speaks at numerous educational seminars for attorneys, insurance companies, nurse case managers, human resource specialists and employers in several states.

Chris is currently on the MVP Board of Directors. He supports Kids Chance of Missouri and resides in St. Louis with his wife, Melissa, and their two daughters. He is from Wisconsin and is a fan of the Packers, Brewers, cheese curds, but also St. Louis' own Battlehawks. Ka Kaw!
