Since 2006, Josh Mareschal has defended clients in a variety of federal and state litigation matters, including tort claims arising out of automobile accidents, commercial vehicle and trucking accidents, premises liability, and wrongful death. Josh has also represented insurance companies on first party claims for breach of contract as well as claims for uninsured and underinsured motorist benefits. He is licensed to practice law in all federal and state courts in Missouri and Oklahoma.

Josh's litigation background includes regularly defending multi-million dollar claims. He has successfully resolved numerous cases prior to trial through motions practice and effective settlement negotiations. He also has first and second chair jury and bench trial experience.

Josh is a member of the Council on Litigation Management (CLM) and is a graduate of the Missouri Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Missouri Class of 2013.
