Jackson is a new associate in the St. Louis office. Jackson graduated from Saint Louis University School of Law in May 2019. Jackson practices in the workers' compensation group in the St. Louis office.

While in law school, Jackson was a member of Saint Louis University's national moot court team and received the Judge Robert G. Dowd Sr. Award for excellence in appellate advocacy. Jackson also served as a TA for the intro to legal studies program and for Moot Court I and II. During his 2L year, Jackson clerked as a judicial extern for the Honorable Colleen Dolan of the Missouri Court of Appeals, Eastern District. Jackson also was a member of the Theodore McMillian American Inn of Court his 3L year. Jackson joined McAnany Van Cleave & Phillips originally as a summer law clerk in 2018.

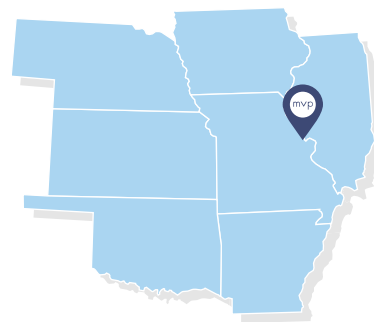

Jackson is a member of the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis and enjoys volunteering with the Humane Society of St. Louis where he participates in one of his favorite activities; walking dogs.

Jackson is an avid sports fan and enjoys following the Chicago Cubs and University of Illinois Fighting Illini, no matter how much either team may disappoint him. Jackson also enjoys exploring the many outdoor patios St. Louis has to offer and exercising.
