Aaron Greenbaum joined MVP in August 2019. He clerked for MVP in both the summer of 2017 and 2018. His primary practice area is workers' compensation in Kansas and Missouri.

Aaron Greenbaum graduated from Baker University in 2016 with a Business degree. While obtaining a major in business management and minors in accounting, finance, and Spanish, he kept busy at Baker University as a member of the Men's soccer team his freshman year and the Men's tennis team all four years. Additionally, he served as the Student Senate President his senior year and as a member of Baker University's improv troupe, Loud Noises, for three years. Among his proudest accolades at Baker University include being one of four Outstanding Seniors and becoming a member of Alpha Delta Sigma (Baker University's Honor Society for students graduating in the top 10% of their class). Following his graduation from Baker University, Mr. Greenbaum obtained his Juris Doctor from Washburn University School of Law in 2019. Mr. Greenbaum was a member of the Washburn Law Journal and published a Comment on the recent workers' compensation decision, Johnson v. U.S. Food Service, 427 P.3d 996 (Kan. Ct. App. 2018). Mr. Greenbaum earned Dean's Honors, a Business and Transactional Law Certificate, and served two years as the Athletic Chair for Phi Alpha Delta.

Mr. Greenbaum enjoys watching Kansas State athletics, Tottenham Hotspur F.C., and the local Kansas City professional sports teams. He additionally enjoys playing tennis, soccer, golf, softball, and pickleball. Some of his favorite musicians include Sam Cooke, the Rolling Stones, the Beatles, Paul Simon, Ben Folds, and Lizzo.
