Brian Israel has been practicing law since 2016. Prior to joining the team at MVP Law, Brian was both a prosecutor and a public defender. Having gained courtroom experience in criminal law, Brian joined MVP in 2021 and is a member of the civil litigation & insurance defense group.

In addition to general liability matters, Brian handles trucking and commercial automobile liability defense for regional, national, and international logistics, transportation and delivery companies. Brian is also involved with retail liability, including the defense of restaurants, hotels and retailers for premises liability and wrongful death claims. He defends professional liability matters including the defense of attorney legal malpractice claims.

In law school, Brian was a finalist for the Captain William O. McLean Student Award, an award given to the person who has done the most to contribute to Notre Dame Law School students.

Brian was raised in Leawood, Kansas and is a big supporter of the local community. Brian is married to his lovely wife, Caitlin, and has two dogs, Neville Longbottom and Bentley Rufus. Brian's hobbies include cheering on the Kansas City Chiefs, building Lego, and cooking.
