Kendall Dawson is an associate in the firm's Kansas City office and is a member of the civil litigation and insurance defense practice group. Kendall joined MVP Law after graduating law school in 2022 and is currently licensed to practice in the state of Kansas.

After pursuing a bachelor's degree in French from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Kendall later earned her juris doctor from Creighton University School of Law. During her time in law school, she began her career in law as a clerk at MVP Law. While in college and law school, she was very involved in her schools' respective communities, serving in executive positions on various advisory boards and serving as a representative for the student body.

Kendall speaks English, Spanish, and French. In her spare time, she enjoys traveling, cooking, spending time with loved ones, and keeping up with the latest happenings and restaurants in Kansas City. She is originally from Omaha, Nebraska, but is proud to call Kansas City her home.
