Henry Haake is an associate in firm's Kansas City, KS office. A Kansas City, MO native, Henry was admitted to the bar in 2023. He practices in MVP's workers' compensation practice group defending insurers, self-insured employers, and third-party administrators in Missouri.

Henry earned his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in Finance degree with a minor in Political Science in 2019 at the University of Arkansas. While attending the University of Arkansas, Henry served as Chorister for Phi Delta Theta, aiding in organizing philanthropic events like their annual banquet to support the J. Thomas May Center for Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis Research. He went on to earn his Juris Doctor from the University of Kansas School of Law, achieving his hopes of becoming the first individual in his family to become a lawyer. At KU Law, he served as a Legal Intern for Colorado Legal Services, Kansas Legal Services in Topeka, and KU's Legal Aid Clinic representing indigent clients without access to typical legal services.

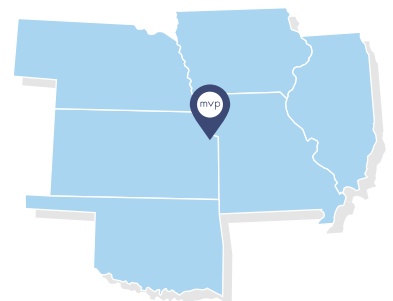

In his free time, Henry spends his time enjoying Kansas City's professional sports teams as well as the University of Arkansas and Kansas University athletics and feels largely spoiled by the experience. The team he dedicates the most time to is the Kansas City Chiefs, with his favorite overall player being Jamaal Charles.
