Emily Bomball is an associate attorney in the firm's St. Louis office, practicing in the workers' compensation practice group defending insurers, self-insured employers, and third party administrators in Missouri. Emily first joined MVP as a summer law clerk and is now working at MVP full time after graduating law school in May 2025.

Prior to joining the firm, Emily graduated from the University of Arkansas where she received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, with a minor in Spanish. She then received her Juris Doctor from the University of Missouri School of Law, where she was a member of the Missouri Law Review and served as the Public Relations Chair for the Women's Law Association. During her time at Mizzou Law, Emily authored an article published in the Missouri Law Review titled "Silenced on Campus: Unveiling the Injustice of Speaker-Based Restrictions in Public University Spaces."

In her free time, Emily enjoys traveling, running, going to concerts, and cheering for the Arkansas Razorbacks (woo pig!). She also loves spending time with her friends and family, and her two cats, Kevin and Buzz.
