Mia Aronson is an associate in MVP Law's Kansas City office, focusing her practice on workers' compensation defense, representing and providing counsel to employers and insurance carriers in Kansas. Mia originally joined MVP Law as a summer associate in 2025 and, after earning her Juris Doctor in 2026, joined the firm's workers' compensation practice group as an associate attorney.

While pursuing her Juris Doctor from Washburn Law, Mia served as the Comments Editor for the Washburn Law Journal, President of Moot Court Council, and Treasurer of Washburn's student division of the Federal Bar Association. She also served as a TA for Legal Analysis, Research, and Writing. Mia was the recipient of the CALI Award for Excellence in Domestic Violence and the Hannah Woofter Memorial Prize for Excellence in First Year Oral Advocacy. Mia was awarded the Faculty Brief Award for her participation in the Robert F. Wagner National Labor and Employment Law Moot Court Competition, as well as membership to The Order of Barristers. Mia's student Note was selected for publication in the 65th edition of Washburn Law Journal, entitled "A Flawed Fix: The Fourth Amendment is Not for Sale Act and the Need for Comprehensive Reform."

Originally from Iola, Kansas, Mia loves making the short drive south to spend time with her family. Outside the office, Mia enjoys baking, reading, and spending time outdoors. She also loves trying new hobbies, always looking for ways to learn something new.
