Hanna Sprigg is an associate attorney in the firm's St. Louis office, practicing in the workers' compensation practice group defending insurers, self-insured employers, and third party administrators in Missouri. Hanna first joined MVP as a summer associate in 2025, and is now working at MVP full time after graduating law school.

Prior to joining the firm, Hanna completed a judicial clerkship with Judge Chris McDonough in St. Charles County, MO. This role helped shape her approach to legal research, case analysis, and written advocacy. During her time in law school, Hanna pursued a concentration in employment law and competed on SLU's Trial Advocacy Team. Most notably, Hanna's team placed third out of 18 teams at the 2025 ABA Labor and Employment Law Trial Advocacy Competition. Her team also earned third place finishes at the 2024 Chicago Cup and the 2024 American Association for Justice Trial Advocacy Competition.

Before pursuing a career in Law, Hanna spent approximately ten years working as an actor and stunt performer, including a year in China performing in a live stunt show. She brings the preparation, adaptability, and communication skills developed through her performance career to her legal practice. Outside the office, she enjoys running, traveling, hiking through National Parks, and spending time with her family and two dogs. She can often be found cheering on her son at the baseball field.
