Dustin Williams is an associate attorney in the firm's Tulsa office. Dustin joined MVP Law as an associate in 2025, after working as a clerk with the firm in 2024. Dustin's practice primarily focuses on civil litigation and insurance defense in Oklahoma and Missouri.

Dustin handles trucking and commercial automobile liability defense for transportation and delivery companies. He also handles construction law and is an Associate Fellow in the Construction Lawyers Society of America, a national society specifically for lawyers and claims adjusters practicing in construction law. He also assists in retail liability, premises liability, and wrongful death claims for retailers and building owners. Dustin also defends employers and insurance carriers in workers' compensation matters.

Dustin attended Hendrix College in Conway, Arkansas where he received his Bachelor Degree in Political Science in 2022. While attending Hendrix, Dustin played football and started 3 out of his 4 years. He obtained his Juris Doctorate from the University of Tulsa College of Law in May 2025. During his time in law school, Dustin was the President of the Resources, Energy, and Environmental Law Society and helped create many events and programs to grow the field of Energy and Environmental Law in Tulsa.

Dustin enjoys spending time with his wife, golfing, and cooking. Dustin has also spent time competing in rodeo competitions as a Steer Wrestler.
